

ANZSOM is going.....

BACK
TO THE FUTURE

Annual Scientific Meeting, 17 – 21 August 2010

The Carrington Hotel Katoomba, NSW

Call for Papers and Participation

Where have we come from and where are we heading in the world of Occupational Health and Safety? What are some solid fundamentals from the past that we need to remember and how can we use these to adapt for the future? How are we exploring new frontiers and approaches? The Annual ANZSOM Scientific Meeting this year will tackle these BIG questions and more in an atmosphere of collegiality and practical learning that members have come to expect and enjoy!

Scientific Program:

Wednesday – Theme of Day is ergonomics with link up with ergonomic society members; Keynote address by Professor Anne Williamson; invited speakers including Jennifer Long - new technology and visual comfort in the workplace; Dr Tim Driscoll - preventing injury in musicians; Maya Guest - balance and hearing loss

Thursday – a.m. site visits (Mines Rescue, Mt Tomah Botanic Garden); p.m. free papers & AGM

Friday – a.m. Invited & free papers - dust diseases; aging; H&S management training; p.m. workshop with Trevor Hall - Creating a positive work environment

Saturday – Dr Joe Dunn - "Staffalgia: how to handle painful people in the workplace"

Venue:

Step back in time to an era of grace, elegance and charm at the beautifully restored Carrington Hotel where the best of the past meets the needs of the future. Dining, dancing and entertainment are on site. Train or drive to Katoomba, or organise an airport transfer via the Hotel at additional cost.

Social Program:

Depending on numbers interested, a private group tour can be arranged to Jenolan Caves or you can take the hop on – hop off local Explorer bus to major attractions.

Important deadlines:

- 30 May 2010 – Accepted Free Paper abstract submission
